Town of Norris Point

Issue 5

February 2006

---

No Tax Increases for Residents

Residents of Norris Point received their tax bills this past week in the mail. At a recent Council meeting, budget items were discussed and it was decided that taxes would not be increased this year.

The deadline for payment of all taxes has been set by the provincial government and will be June 30, 2006.

Snow Clearing

When shoveling snow this winter, please do not throw snow onto the roadway or around the fire hydrants. The Town will not be responsible for damages incurred during snow clearing.

Volunteers Needed

If you would like to volunteer for any of the organizations listed below, please call the Council Office at 458-2896 and leave your name:

Tidy Town Committee
Recreation Committee
Canada Day Committee

A photo of our Tidy Towns Sign is shown above. This sign will be erected in the spring. Let's live up to this award and keep our town as tidy as possible.

Congratulations to Gus and Mary Reid who will be celebrating their 40th Wedding Anniversary on February 4, 2006.

Upcoming Events:

The Anglican Church will be having a Bean, Toutons, Pancake and Soup Supper on February 28 at 5:30 p.m. This event will be held in the Seniors Building/Lions Den, cost per supper is $6.00.
