

Local residents and the Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society invite you to an open discussion about a buffer zone around Gros Morne World Heritage Site and what this means for you.

Topics to be discussed:

- What is a UNESCO World Heritage Site buffer zone?
- What does it mean for residents and businesses?
- What do buffer zones look like at other World Heritage Sites?
- How should a buffer zone be created?

Please bring your ideas and questions and join us at:

Woody Point, Town Hall, Wednesday, May 6, 7pm

Rocky Harbour, Pioneers 50 Plus Club (Seniors' Centre)
Thursday, May 7, 7pm

Light refreshments will be served.
